Financial Analytics

Introduction

o The analysis focuses on the top 500 companies in India, examining their market capitalization and quarterly sales.

o The goal is to provide insights into the competitive landscape and identify key trends and patterns.

Details of Data

o The dataset includes market capitalization and quarterly sales data for the top 500 companies in India.

o It contains company names, market capitalization, and quarterly sales, and pertains to the most recent available quarter.

o Data cleaning was performed to address any missing values and ensure accurate data types.
Main KPIs

Market Capitalization: The total market value of a company's outstanding shares.

Quarterly Sales: The total revenue generated by a company in a quarter.

Top Performers: Companies with the highest market capitalization and sales.

My Design

Thank you